II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case. In a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

3.	The A	Amount in Controversy
	owes	The amount in controversy—the amount the plaintiff claims the defendant owes or the amount at stake—is more than $75,000, not counting interest and costs of court, because (explain):
	The D	efendant has fraudulently caused the Plaintiff to receive a $35,678,208.00
	levy fr	om the IRS in error by filing a fraudulent information return for 2016 and even more egregio	ous fraudulent information returns filed in 2020 and 2021 that will result in even greater IRS levies.

III. Statement of Claim

Write a short and plain statement of the claim. Do not make legal arguments. State as briefly as possible the facts showing that each plaintiff is entitled to the damages or other relief sought. State how each defendant was involved and what each defendant did that caused the plaintiff harm or violated the plaintiff's rights, including the dates and places of that involvement or conduct. If more than one claim is asserted, number each claim and write a short and plain statement of each claim in a separate paragraph. Attach additional pages if needed.

Alberto Medina Lopez, Defendant, has filed fraudulent 1099's for the years of 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2020 and 2021 with respect to earnings purported to be made by the Plaintiff and Plaintiff is filing this action under 26 USC sec. 7434 because the Defendant's egregious filings has led to an eroneous levy against the Plaintiff from the IRS in the amount of $35,678,208.00 for the year of 2016 and additional levys to follow for the year 2020 and 2021.
The Plaintiff is filing this complaint in order to stop further potential groundless taxation, penalties and levys by both the Maryland State Comptroller and the IRS and Plaintiff is aware that under this statue that the period for bringing action may be brought only within the latter of 6 years after the date of the filing of the fraudulent information return in which case Plaintiff's damages sought herein will only apply to the 2020 and 2021 fraudulent IRS filings in the enormous amounts of $250,000,000 and $4,500,000,000 for the year of 2020 and $4,500,000,000 for the year of 2021 which collectively supersedes the amounts of all of the aforementioned fraudulent 1099 filings leading up to the year of 2020. In sum, Plaintiff was unable to hire an attorney to address this egregious conduct by the Defendant and this federal statue that renders a civil action complaint has only recently come to the attention of the Plaintiff while appealing the validity of the IRS's 1st levy.

IV. Relief

State briefly and precisely what damages or other relief the plaintiff asks the court to order. Do not make legal arguments. Include any basis for claiming that the wrongs alleged are continuing at the present time. Include the amounts of any actual damages claimed for the acts alleged and the basis for these amounts. Include any punitive or exemplary damages claimed, the amounts, and the reasons you claim you are entitled to actual or punitive money damages. For any request for injunctive relief, explain why monetary damages at a later time would not adequately compensate you for the injuries you sustained, are sustaining, or will sustain as a result of the events described above, or why such compensation could not be measured.

Plaintiff is seeking $3,500,000.00 in punitive damages because as of 2021, the Defendant's egregious behavior continued.

Plaintiff is seeking injunctive relief by way of a Cease and Desist

Order to stop the Defendant's fraudulent filings of information returns.
